reports are to be presented to the membership at the Annual General Meeting.

(2) The committee shall cause to be opened with such bank as the committee selects a banking account in the name of the Association into which all moneys received shall be paid by the Treasurer as soon as possible after receipt thereof.

(3) The committee may receive from the Association's bank or bankers for the time being the cheques drawn by the Association on any of its accounts with the bank or bankers and may release and indemnify the bank or bankers from and against all claims, actions, suits, or demands that may be brought against the bank or bankers arising directly or indirectly out of those cheques or the surrender thereof to the Association.

(4) Except with the authority of the committee, no payment of a sum exceeding two dollars shall be made from the funds of the Association otherwise than by cheque drawn on the Association's bank account, but the committee may provide the Treasurer with a sum to meet urgent expenditure, subject to the observance of such conditions in relation to the use and expenditure thereof as the committee may impose.

want this?*

(5) No cheques shall be drawn on the Association's bank account except for the payment of expenditure that has been authorized by the committee.

(6) All cheques, drafts, bills of exchange, promisory notes, and other negotiable instruments shall be signed by the Treasurer or, in his absence, by such other member or members of the committee as the committee may nominate for that purpose, and shall be countersigned by the public officer.

*change
this?*

9. (1) At each annual general meeting of the Association, the members present shall appoint a person as the auditor of the Association.

(2) A person so appointed shall hold office until the annual general meeting next after that at which he is appointed, and is eligible for re-appointment.

(3) The first auditor of the Association may be appointed by the committee before the first annual general meeting, and, if so appointed, shall hold office until the first annual general meeting, unless previously removed by a resolution of the members at a general meeting, in which case the members at that meeting may appoint an auditor to act until the first annual general meeting.

(4) If an appointment is not made at an annual general meeting the committee shall appoint an auditor of the Association for the then current financial year of the Association.

(5) Except as provided in sub-rule (3) of this rule, the auditor may only be removed from office by special resolution.

(6) If a casual vacancy occurs in the office of auditor during the course of a financial year of the Association, the committee may appoint a person as the auditor and the person so appointed shall hold office until the next succeeding annual general meeting.

10. (1) Once at least in each financial year of the Association, the accounts of the Association shall be examined by the auditor. prior to AGM

(2) The auditor shall certify as to the correctness of the accounts of the Association and shall report thereon to the members present at the annual general meeting. AGM

(3) In his report, and in certifying to the accounts, the auditor shall state -

(a) whether he has obtained the information required by him:

(b) whether, in his opinion, the accounts are properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the financial position of the Association according to the information at his disposal and the explanations given to him and as shown by the books of the Association: and

(c) whether the rules relating to the administration of the funds of the Association have been observed.

(4) The public officer of the Association shall cause to be delivered to the auditor a list of all the accounts, books, and records of the Association.

(5) The auditor -

32. (1) Subject to this rule, the committee may expel a member from the Association if, in the opinion of the committee the member has been guilty of conduct detrimental to the interest of the Association.

(2) The expulsion of a member pursuant to sub-rule (1) of this rule does not take effect -

(a) until the expiration of fourteen days after the service on the member of a notice under sub-rule (3) of this rule: or

(b) if the member exercises his right of appeal under this rule, until the conclusion of the special general meeting convened to hear the appeal, which ever is the later date.

(3) Where the committee expels a member from the Association the public officer of the Association shall, without undue delay, cause to be served on the member a notice in writing -

(a) stating that the committee has expelled the member:

(b) specifying the grounds for the expulsion: and

(c) informing the member that if he so desires he may, within fourteen days after the service of the notice on him, appeal against the expulsion as provided in this rule.

(4) A member on whom a notice under sub-rule (3) of this rule is served may appeal against the expulsion to a special general meeting by delivering or sending by post to the public officer of the Association, within fourteen days after the service of that notice, a requisition in writing demanding the convening of such a meeting for the purpose of hearing his appeal.

(5) Upon receipt of a requisition under sub-rule (4) of this rule, the public officer shall forthwith notify the committee of its receipt and the committee shall thereupon cause a special general meeting of members to be held within twenty-one days after the date on which the requisition is received by the public officer.

(6) At a special general meeting convened for the purpose of this rule -

(a) no business other than the question of the expulsion shall be transacted:

(b) the committee may place before the meeting details of the grounds of the expulsion and the committee's reasons for the expulsion:

(c) the expelled member shall be given an opportunity to be heard: and

(d) the members present shall vote by secret ballot on the question whether the expulsion should be lifted or confirmed.

(7) If at the special general meeting a majority of the members present vote in favour of the lifting of the expulsion, the expulsion shall be deemed to have been lifted and the expelled member is entitled to continue his membership of the Association.

(8) If at the special general meeting a majority of the members present vote in favour of the confirmation of the expulsion, the expulsion takes effect, and the expelled member ceases to be a member of the Association.

33. (1) Subject to this rule, a dispute between a member of the Association, in his capacity as a member, and the Association shall be determined by arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitration Act 1892.

(2) Nothing in this rule affects the operation or effect of rule 32.

34. (1) The seal of the Association shall be in the form of a rubber stamp, inscribed with the name of the Association encircling the word "Seal".

(2) The seal of the Association shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of the committee, and the affixing thereof shall be attested by the signatures either of two members of the committee or of one member of the committee and of the public officer of the Association or such other person as the committee may appoint for that purpose, and that attestation is sufficient for all purposes that the seal was affixed by authority of the committee.

(3) The seal shall remain in the custody of the public officer.
